He waka eke noa: We are all in this together

Kia ora koutou,

It is hard to believe we have only been back at school for a few days. Our amazing staff have been working behind the scenes, making sure that everything is set for a great year of learning and the children have certainly returned eager to get going.

As we start the new school year, it is essential to revisit the core values that define our school community. At Orewa Beach School we are committed to fostering an environment that thrives on RESPECT:

Resilience: I pick myself up and carry on.

Empathy: I understand how others feel.

Self-Belief: I know I can.

Perseverance: I keep going. I keep trying.

Equity: A fair chance for everyone.

Cultural Awareness: I respect all cultures.

Togetherness: I belong to Orewa Beach School Family.

Our first community event, the "Fluro Run" is coming up on Thursday 15th February. This is certainly set to be a fantastic event with a chance to meet your child's teacher. Save the date and look out for further details coming out soon!

I have been very fortunate to meet some families already and I look forward to getting to know many more in the next few weeks. I have certainly been made to feel very welcome.
